The President's Report

Annually in our May Bulletin on the "In Memoriam" page, Columbia Typographical Union 101-12 publishes the names of our members who have passed away during the preceding year. We extend our gratitude for their years of dedication and support to our Union.

The Local would like to remind our members who are unable to attend the Local meetings to visit the CTU 101-12 Web page at the address above or by scanning the QRC code above. There you will find previous months' Bulletins and the minutes from previous meetings.

GOVERNMENT PUBLISHING OFFICE (GPO)

The current wage agreement between GPO and the Joint Council of Unions will expire at the end of 2025. With the last three or four wage contracts, Columbia Typographical Union 101-12 has participated with the Joint Council of Unions in negotiating a new wage agreement with the GPO.

The GPO has reached out to the Joint Council of Unions with their wage agreement proposal for 2026-2030. The current GPO proposal is for 5 years instead of 4 and will continue with pay raises by the same percentage according to General Service (GS) employees in the Washington, DC, area.

This wage proposal negotiation is crucial as it will determine the wage structure for the next five years. Your support and input are vital to ensure a fair and beneficial agreement for all parties involved.

Members are encouraged to attend the May 24, 2025, Union meeting to discuss the GPO's current wage proposal.

Updates and detailed information regarding negotiation meetings and progress will be provided as they become available.

Fraternally,

Michael M. Maher,

President

Vice President's Report

The coin depicted to the right was designed by our colleagues at the Government Publishing Office (GPO). The obverse (front) of the coin features the GPO emblem, while the reverse side displays the emblems of the CWA, AFL-CIO, the Printing Sector, and the Columbia Typographical Society.

This coin serves as a symbol of appreciation and a reminder of the solidarity and dedication displayed daily by our union members. It not only represents the hard work and craftsmanship of our colleagues at the GPO but also celebrates the rich history and unity of our labor organizations.

For those interested in acquiring this coin, please contact the Local via email with your request. While supplies are limited, there are currently coins available for purchase at a price of $10.00 each.

CONTINUOUS UNION MEMBERSHIP CERTIFICATES

In years past, the Baltimore Local 101-12 Union Printers Retiree's Club would host their annual Union awards luncheon at the Baltimore Museum of Industry. At the luncheon, members would receive a certificate along with a lapel pin indicating their years of continuous membership in the Union. Unfortunately, the luncheon for 2025 will not be held.

However, the Local would like to award members with 25, 40, 50, 60, 70, or more years of continuous Union membership their certificates. To speed up the process of issuing members their certificates, members should send their Union membership information to the Local. The Local would like to request this information be sent by U.S. mail or e-mailed to:
